JSfirm.com Celebrates 60+ Partners as Job Listings Surge Past 30,000

Roanoke, Texas (October 22, 2024) - JSfirm.com, the world's largest resource for aviation jobs, recently announced a significant milestone: the total number of job listings has surpassed 30,000, thanks in part to our expanding network of over 60 partners in the aviation industry.

As the demand for skilled professionals in aviation continues to rise, our dedicated partnerships have played a crucial role in expanding our reach. Through sharing all aviation jobs with a diverse array of organizations, associations, media outlets, and schools, we continue to have the largest platform that markets aviation opportunities to the most relevant audience.

"Our extensive network of Job Distribution Partners is vital to our mission," said Abbey Hutter, Executive Director at JSfirm.com. "These partnerships amplify our reach and ensure aviation job opportunities are accessible to a diverse group of potential job seekers. She added, "Together, with our partners, we continue to market all aviation jobs in front of the most relevant audience."

The increase in total activity (job listings, searches, applications, etc.) is a testament to the strength of our partnerships and the aviation industry as a whole. As we look to the future, JSfirm.com remains focused on continuing to enhance our platform while expanding our partnerships to further the overall reach in the aviation industry.
